

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

(NO CHANGE)

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

25

SEC.106 (a) There shall be in the Council of Com-

1 men Defense a Central Intelligence Agency (hereinafter
2 in this section referred to as the "Agency"), with a
3 Director who shall be the head thereof, to be appoint-
4 ed from civilian or military life by the President by 5 and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who 6 shall receive compensation at the rate of $12,000 per 7 annum. Any commissioned officer of the United States
8 Army, the United States Navy, or the United States
9 Air Forces may be appointed to the office of Director; 10 and his appointment to, acceptance of, and service in,
11 such office shall in no way affect any status, office, 12 rank, or grade he may occupy or hold in the United 13 States Army, the United States Navy, or the United 14 States Air Forces, or any emolument, perquisite,
15 right, privilege, or benefit incident to or arising 16 out of any such status, office, rank, or grade. Any 17 such commissioned officer on the active list shall, 18 while serving in the Office of Director, receive the 19 military pay and allowances payable to a commissioned 20 officer of his grade and length of service and shall be 21 paid, from any funds available to defray the expenses
22 of the Agency, annual compensation at a rate equal to 23 the difference between $12,000 and the amount of his 24 annual military pay and allowances. There shall be as-25 signed to duty with the Agency such military and civilian

1 personnel of the departments and agencies of the Govern-
2 ment as the Council of Common Defense may, from time to 3 time, recommend and the President approve.

4 (b) It shall be the duty of the Agency, under the 5 supervision and direction of the Council of Common De-6 fense, to plan, develop, and coordinate the foreign in-
7 telligence activities of the United States in such man-8 ner as to assure the most effective accomplishment of 9 the intelligence mission relating to the national secur-10 ity. Subject to the supervision and direction of the 11 Council of Common Defense, the Agency shall:

12 (1) correlate and evaluate intelligence re-
13 lating to the national security and provide for 14 the appropriate dissemination within the Govern-
15 ment of the resulting strategic and national 16 policy intelligence;

17 (2) make plans for the coordination of such 18 of the intelligence activities of the departments
19 and agencies of the Government as relate to the 20 national security and recommend to the Council of 21 Common Defense the establishment of such over-all 22 policies and objectives as will assure the most 23 effective accomplishment of the national intelli-
24 gence mission;

25 (3) perform, for the benefit of the depart-

1 ments and other agencies of the Government such 2 intelligence services of common concern as relate 3 to the national security and as the Council of 4 Common Defense determines can be more efficiently
5 accomplished by the Agency; and

6 (4) perform such other functions and duties
7 relating to intelligence affecting the national 8 security as the President or the Council of Common
9 Defense may from time to time direct.

10 (c) The responsibility and authority of the depart-
11 ments and other agencies of the Government to perform 12 intelligence operations shall not be affected, except to 13 the extent that the Agency may relieve them of such 14 authority and responsibility pursuant to the provisions
15 of subsection (b). The Agency shall have no police,
16 subpoena, law enforcement, or internal security powers 17 or functions; nor shall anything herein be construed as 18 authorizing the Agency to make investigations inside
19 the continental United States or its possessions, except 20 as provided by law.

21 (d) The Agency shall make use of the facilities
22 and services of the military and the civilian intelli-
23 gence agencies of the Government and may conduct intelli-24 gence projects through, or in cooperation with, such 25 agencies. Such agencies are hereby authorized and di-

1 rected to make such facilities and services available
2 to the Agency and to participate in the conduct of 3 its projects.

4 (e) To the extent recommended by the Council of 5 Common Defense and approved by the President, (1) the in-6 telligence operations of the departments and other agen-
7 cies of the Government shall be open to inspection by the 8 Director in connection with the planning functions of the 9 Agency and (2) the intelligence possessed by such depart-10 ments and agencies shall be made freely available to the 11 Director for correlation, evaluation, or dissemination.

12 (f) In the conduct of the Agency's activities, the 13 Director shall be responsible for fully protecting in-14 telligence sources and methods.

15 (g) The Agency may transfer funds to other govern-
16 mental agencies for intelligence work included within 17 the programs formulated by the Agency.

18 (h) The Agency shall report annually to the Council
19 of Common Defense an account of the work done by the 20 Agency and such report shall, to the extent consistent 21 with the national security, be included in the annual re-
22 port of the Council.

23

24

25